America's Automotive Trust Announces Saleen Sweepstakes

Entrants will have a chance to win "Blazing Fury" a top-of-the-line 800-horsepower, Saleen 302 Black Label

Tacoma, Wash. (December 8, 2020) — America's Automotive Trust and Saleen Automotive Inc. are teaming up to offer a chance to win a 2019 Saleen 302 Black Label known as "Blazing Fury." Proceeds from the sweepstakes will benefit America's Automotive Trust and its member organizations: LeMay – America's Car Museum, the RPM Foundation, Club Auto and the Concours Club. Enthusiasts have a chance to win one of the hottest supercars on the road – an 800-hp Saleen 302 Black Label, nicknamed "Blazing Fury." Complete with the iconic racing livery of famed driver-turned-manufacturer Steve Saleen, the car has hit the pavement at some of America's most prestigious racetracks. "We're thrilled to be involved with America's Automotive Trust and can't think of a better way to preserving the rich heritage of car culture, while also promoting the future of automobiles," said founder and CEO of Saleen Automotive Steve Saleen. "We designed 'Blazing Fury' to help spread the word and it feels great to know that the proceeds from this sweepstakes will go toward preserving the importance of the automobile in American history for future generations."

The sweepstakes is part of a larger celebration of car culture – America's Automotive Trust's "The Drive Home" – an annual cross-country tour of vintage vehicles, starting in alternating regions across the country and ending in Detroit for the North American International Auto Show (NAIAS). Due to COVID-19 restrictions and the cancellation of NAIAS this year, The Drive Home was reimagined as "The Drive Forward", a series of day drives across the country to support America's Automotive Trust's movement to keep car culture alive during this unprecedented time. The Drive Forward is a part of the national Rally Across America, which aims to raise $2 million for charities in the absence of car shows and concours events during the COVID-19 pandemic. Rallies as part of The Drive Forward will be held in communities across the country leading up to the new and expanded scope of the NAIAS in 2021, some of which will feature Blazing Fury.
